The name of the Union shall be "THE HEALTHCARE SERVICES EMPLOYEES' UNION" hereinafter referred to in these Rules as "THE UNION".

Rule 2 Address

Its Registered Office shall be at No. 3, Bukit Pasoh Road #02-00, Singapore 089817 or such other place as the Executive Council may decide. The Head Office of the Union shall be where its Registered Office is at any time.

Rule 3 Objects

- i) To unite all workers eligible for membership into one comprehensive industrial union.
- ii) To promote good industrial relations between members and employers.
- iii) To improve the working conditions of members or enhance their economic and social status.
- iv) To provide legal advice or assistance to members in connection with their employment where necessary and at the discretion of the Executive Council.
- v) To try and formulate a scheme for the payment of certain money benefits at the death of members.
- vi) To affiliate with and/or to further the work and objectives of the National Trades Union Congress and the Singapore Labour Foundation and any other national or international organisation having for its objectives the promotion of the interest and welfare of workers and/or trade unions, and trade unionists subject to the statutory restrictions on the use of Union funds;
- vii) To carry into execution any purpose which, in the opinion of the Executive Council, is reasonably ancillary, incidental to, or consequential on any of the objects herein set forth.
- viii) To foster the spirit of solidarity, service, brotherhood co-operation and mutual help among the workers.
- ix) To imbue in the workers, a sense of responsibility towards the community and the State.
- x) To develop in the workers, a working class consciousness, transcending all racial barriers.

- xi) To achieve the raising of productivity for the benefit of members, employers and the economy of Singapore.
- xii) To promote and operate any co-operative scheme or industrial or commercial undertaking as the Executive Council may decide, subject to any relevant provision of the laws of Singapore governing the utilisation of Union funds.

Rule 4 Amalgamation

It shall be competent for the Executive Council to amalgamate with any other union whose membership comes within the purview of this Union on being satisfied that the proper steps have been taken to ascertain the views of the members of the union desirous of amalgamating with this union.

The Executive Council shall at all times have power to amalgamate with another union in accordance with the Trade Unions Act.

Rule 5 Dissolution

- i) Unless 5/6th of the total membership of the Union agree, the Union shall not be dissolved.
- ii) In the event of the Union being dissolved, all debts and liabilities legally incurred shall be fully discharged and the remaining assets shall be divided amongst the members at the time of dissolution in proportion to the total amounts subscribed by each member during his membership.

Rule 6 General

Nothing in this Constitution and Rules shall be deemed to authorise the Union or any member or officer of the Union to do anything which may be contrary to the provisions of the Trade Union Act or of any law in force in the Republic of Singapore.

SECTION II - MEMBERSHIP

Rule 7

- i) The membership of the union shall consist of Founder members, Cadre members, Ordinary members, Ordinary (General) members, Honorary and Associate members. The Ordinary membership of the Union is open to all employees of the Healthcare Institutions under Ministry of Health Holdings (MOHH) and its subsidiaries in any capacity and all employees who are locally employed in the Healthcare Services industry such as private hospitals, community hospitals, nursing homes, voluntary welfare organisations and related industries in any capacity and who are not ordinary members of any other registered trade union of employees in Singapore.

- ii) The Ordinary (General) membership of this Union is open to all employees who are eligible to be Ordinary members of the Union but who are unable to be represented by the Union vis-a-vis their respective employers, for the time being from any cause whatsoever, provided that they are not members of any other registered trade union of employees..
- iii) Ordinary (General) members shall not be eligible to hold any office in the Union or have the right to attend, speak and vote at any Delegate Conference or general meeting of members or participate in any postal ballot.
- iv) Ordinary (General) members shall not be entitled to be represented by the Union in any matter vis-a-vis their respective employers or to take part in any industrial action, so long as the respective employers do not accord recognition to them.
- v) Ordinary (General) members shall be converted to ordinary membership with effect from such date, as the Executive Council shall decide upon in its absolute discretion, that they are eligible to be represented by the Union vis-a-vis their respective employers.
- vi) Ordinary (General) members shall be eligible to enjoy all associated welfare benefits provided by the Union under the Rules as well as any other Union Benefit Scheme established by the Executive Council from time to time, except that Ordinary (General) members shall not be eligible to enjoy any of the benefits under this Union's Welfare Schemes. The Union Benefits Scheme shall be governed by such Regulations as are adopted by the Executive Council.
- vii) In this constitution, every reference to Ordinary members shall include a reference to Ordinary (General) members unless it is expressly stated otherwise or it is clearly not permitted by the context.
- viii) The Founder Members of this union shall be such persons as are certified by the Secretary General of NTUC in his absolute discretion to have actively assisted in the founding and to be fit and able to assist in the running of this union and to help this union attain its objects irrespective of whether they are eligible to be ordinary members of the union. They shall have a right to attend, speak and vote at delegates conferences. They shall not stand for elections unless they qualify within Rule 29.
- ix) The Cadre Members of this Union shall be appointed by the Executive Council from among ordinary members and other persons, provided that every such appointee is certified by the Secretary General of NTUC in his absolute discretion to be a fit and proper person to assist in the running of this Union, irrespective of whether or not such appointee is eligible to be an ordinary member of this Union. The total number of Cadre members shall not be more than seven. They shall have a right to attend, speak and vote at delegates conferences. They shall not stand for elections unless they qualify within Rule 29.

- x) The period of appointment of Cadre members shall be for 4 years subject to the term of office of the Executive Council of this union and subject to further re-appointment on similar terms by the Secretary General of NTUC. Notwithstanding the above, the appointment of Founder and Cadre members shall cease upon the revocation of certification by the Secretary General of NTUC.
- xi) Founder and Cadre members shall rank as Ordinary Members and shall have all rights and duties of Ordinary members, provided that Founder and Cadre members who are eligible for Ordinary membership may be attached to the respective divisions to which they would have been attached as Ordinary members.
- xii) Honorary membership is defined under Rule 13 of the constitution.
- xiii) Associate membership is defined under Rule 14 of the constitution.

Rule 8 Admission or Rejection

- i) Each applicant for membership shall sign an application form which shall be submitted to the Executive Council for approval. The acceptance of such application by the Executive Council shall confer on each member all the rights and privileges of membership of the Union, without distinction, subject to the provisions of these rules.
- ii) The Executive Council shall decide whether to accept or reject any application for membership without assigning any reason therefor. The decision of the Executive Council shall be final.
- iii) An Ordinary (General) member shall be required to furnish a copy of his current pay slip or such other documentary proof of his employment status as the Executive Council shall decide upon in its absolute discretion when applying for membership and whenever required by the Union.
- iv) An Ordinary (General) member who fails to comply with Rule 8 (iii) above or who has furnished any false information pertaining to his employment at the time of his application for membership or at any other time thereafter shall be deemed to have committed a misconduct rendering him liable for expulsion from the Union in accordance with these Rules. (Updated on 25/11/96)
- v) The Executive Council may require a successful applicant for ordinary membership who fails to give a satisfactory explanation for any undue delay in applying for membership of this Union to pay a special fee and comply with such other condition(s) as the Executive Council deems fit to impose.

Rule 9 Change of Employment and/or Union

- i) If a member from another Union ceases to be a member of that union by reason of any change in his occupation or employment and applies for membership of this Union he may be accepted into membership by this Union provided he was a fully paid up member of his earlier union.
- ii) In the event of a person requiring transfer from another Union to this Union and where such person is in arrears of subscriptions according to the Rules of the former Union such person shall only be admitted into membership upon confirmation by his former union to this union of the effective transfer date and he shall be treated as a new member and accrued benefits from various Co-operatives set up by the NTUC, if any, shall be forfeited

Rule 10 Financial Year

The financial year of the Union shall be from 1st April to 31st March.

Rule 11 Subscription

- i) The Executive Council shall have the power to make arrangements for the deductions of subscriptions, contributions and levies and any arrears in respect thereof payable under these rules from members' salaries or wages and the remittance of the same to the Union by the respective employers of the members.
- ii) The Executive Council shall decide on the mode of collection of subscriptions, contributions and levies and any arrears in respect thereof payable by members and any decision reached by the Executive Council shall be final and binding on all members.
- iii) When the Executive Council has reached agreement for deductions of union subscriptions contributions and levies and any arrears in respect hereof through the check-off, or GIRO deduction, then all Ordinary members, without exception, where any check-off system or GIRO system is in operation, shall pay their subscriptions, contributions and levies and any arrears in respect thereof by means of the check-off or GIRO only. No member shall have the right to advise the employer directly or indirectly or to take any steps whatsoever to stop deductions of subscriptions, contributions and levies and any arrears in respect thereof except through and with the approval of the Executive Council which approval shall not be unreasonably withheld.
- iv) All Ordinary Members who join this union with effect from January 2006, shall pay the union subscription contributions and any arrears in respect through GIRO. Any request to pay above said deduction through the check-off system or any other manner shall be decided and agreed to at the Executive Council's absolute discretion. For the purpose of paying the union's affiliation to Singapore Labour Foundation (SLF), every Ordinary Member Ordinary (General) Member shall pay a yearly subscription fee amount as shall be determined by the Executive Council from time to time in accordance with the advice of the NTUC Central Committee.

- v) The monthly subscription fees for Ordinary and Ordinary (General) members shall be of such amount and at such rate as a Delegates Conference or, in the special circumstances of paragraph (xiv) hereof the Executive Council shall decide. The prevailing rates of monthly and yearly subscription fee and, if any, levy shall upon their due adoption by this Union, be listed In the First Schedule hereto separately for Ordinary Members, Ordinary (General) Members and Associate Members, provided that no fee or levy shall take effect before due registration with the Registrar of Trade Unions.
- vi) For the purpose of paying the union's affiliation Singapore Labour Foundation (SLF), every Ordinary Member Ordinary (General) Member shall pay a yearly subscription fee amount as shall be determined by the Executive Council from time in accordance with the advice of the NTUC Central Committee.
- vii) Every Ordinary Member and Ordinary (General) Member shall pay a levy equivalent to one month's membership subscription fee at the end of each year to be paid to NTUC which shall be utilized for such benefits to union members which the NTUC Central Committee deems fit such as the NTUC Gift.
- viii) The Executive Council shall have the power to suspend or defer the payment of the whole sum or any fee or levy on the application in writing of any member on the ground of national service, sickness or such circumstances as the Executive Council may approve.

Suspension of membership

- ix) The Executive Council of the Union shall have authority to suspend the membership of any member of the Union whose monthly subscriptions, contributions and levies are three months in arrears whether consecutively or intermittently. A suspended member shall have no right to attend meetings and shall not be eligible to stand for election to the Branch Committee or as delegates. The Executive Council shall have power to remove the name of a suspended member from the membership record if he fails to pay up his subscriptions, contributions and/or levies after due warning has been given.
- x) Any member whose name is removed from the membership record of the Branch for failure to pay subscriptions, contributions or levies or who resigned from membership of the Union shall not be re-admitted except on payment of all arrears due in accordance with Rule 17. Any member whose membership has been terminated shall have the right of appeal to the Executive Council and, if not satisfied therewith, to the next Quadrennial Delegates Conference. The decision of the Quadrennial Delegates Conference shall be final.
- xi) All members shall within the period decided by the Executive Council authorise in writing the deduction of union subscriptions, contributions and/ or levies from their monthly salaries. Any failure by a member to authorise in writing or otherwise to permit such check-off or GIRO deduction shall have the same effect as a failure to pay monthly subscriptions under paragraph (ix-x) of this Rule unless regular alternative payment arrangements have been made. This includes but is not limited to payment by cash or credit card.

- xii) Any member who is in arrears of subscriptions or levies in excess of three months shall be deemed to have resigned from membership of the Union with effect from the last day of such period of three months and shall be struck off from the appropriate list of membership and forfeit all interest in Union. The member shall not have the right to attend meetings, shall not have the right to vote and shall not be eligible to stand for election to the Branch Committee or to any other post. The Executive Council may waive this clause as deemed necessary.
- xiii) A member so struck off may be reinstated in membership of this Union without any break in the continuity of his membership if he applies for reinstatement within 3 months of being struck off and complies with such conditions as Executive Council may impose in its absolute discretion.
- xiv) For the purpose of giving effect to a resolution of the NTUC Delegates Conference or the NTUC Central Committee under terms of affiliation of this union thereto, the Executive Council shall have power to alter or revise in any manner the prevailing rates of monthly or yearly subscription fee or impose or vary special levy without convening a Delegates Conference for such purpose and such alteration, revision or imposition or variation shall be deemed to have been duly approved by a Delegates Conference in accordance with Rule 35 of the constitution and shall after due registration with the Registrar of Trade Unions, be circulated to members for information.

Rule 12 Membership Cards

- i) Each member shall be given a NTUC membership card. The card will show (a) Name and (b) Identification Number.
- ii) Membership Cards shall not be transferable and each member will be held responsible for the proper use of his card. Members must show their membership cards to any official of the Union when requested to do so and at any official meeting of the members of the Union.
- iii) Membership Cards must be submitted if required for purposes of checking against Register.
- iv) Any loss of membership card must be reported either to the General Secretary or to the Branch Secretary who will then take the necessary action to issue a replacement.

Rule 13 Honorary Membership

In addition to ordinary subscription paying membership there shall also be National Honorary Membership.

National Honorary Membership of the Union may be conferred in recognition of distinguished service to the Trade Union Movement in a National representative, capacity over a period of years. It may be conferred upon ex-members of the Union who are no longer eligible for membership or upon persons who have not at any time been eligible for membership of the Union.

Nominations for the Honorary Members may be made by Branch Committees and by the Executive Council and must be submitted to the General Secretary not later than the 31st December in any year. The nomination or nominations must be approved by the Executive Council by a majority of two-thirds of those voting. Honorary members shall enjoy such rights and benefits as determined by the Executive Council. They shall not have a right to stand for election, attend, speak and vote at delegates conferences.

Rule 14 Associate membership

i) The Associate membership of this Union may at the absolute discretion of the Executive Council be open to the following persons so long as they are over 16 years of age and are not eligible for the Ordinary or Ordinary (General) Membership of this Union or any other trade union:

- (1) the spouses and children of Ordinary and Ordinary (General) members;
- (2) employees of this Union who have been confirmed in service;
- (3) all persons/employees/self-employed (including those on internship/attachment) in the healthcare or related industry or establishments organised by the Union; and
- (4) former ordinary or Ordinary (General) members of this Union who have retired from the service of the healthcare industry or establishments organised by the Union.

(ii) Associate members shall enjoy such rights and benefits as determined by the Executive Council. They shall not have a right to stand for election, attend, speak and vote at delegates conferences.

Rule 15 Expulsion

- i) Any member acting in a manner against the interests of the Union and/or in contravention of any of these rules may be expelled from the Union or fined not exceeding $50.00 by the Executive Council.
- ii) Any Branch may if it deems it necessary in the interests of the Union recommend for expulsion of a member of the Branch concerned to the Executive Council by submitting reasons thereof. The Executive Council if it decides that the reasons given by the Branch warrant the expulsion of the member concerned shall inform the member of the reasons for the expulsion and of the decision of the Executive Council.

- iii) In every case the member shall have and be advised of his right of appeal to the Quadrennial Delegates Conference. The decision of the Quadrennial Delegates Conference shall be final.

Rule 16 Resignation

- i) A member who wishes to resign from the Union shall give at least three calendar months' notice in writing to the General Secretary and shall pay all his subscriptions, contributions and levies if any up to the date on which his resignation takes effect. The Executive Council shall only consider the notice of resignation if the member concerned is a fully paid up member.
- ii) The effective date of resignation from the membership of the Union shall not be earlier than three calendar months from date of receipt by the General Secretary of the notification of resignation irrespective of the date on which the Executive Council approves such resignation or on the date when the members' arrears of subscriptions, contributions and levies are fully paid up whichever is later.

Rule 17 Re-admission to membership

- i) When any person previously a member of the Union and whose membership had previously lapsed through arrears of subscriptions, contributions or levies, applies for re-admission, the Branch Secretary to whom application has been made shall forward the applicant's name and particulars to the General Secretary to ascertain whether there is any reason why he should not be re-admitted to the Union. If nothing is known to his discredit, he may be re-admitted by the Executive Council to membership subject to the provisions of this Rule.
- ii) Any person whose membership has previously lapsed through arrears of subscriptions, contributions or levies or who has previously resigned from the Union and seeks re-admission shall pay such outstanding arrears and Re-Admission Fee to be decided by the Executive Council.

Rule 18 Dispute

- i) Should any dispute arise between any member and any officer of the Union respecting the construction of these Rules or any additions or alterations to them or any point upon which the Rules are silent the dispute shall be referred to the Executive Council and failing a satisfactory settlement of the question by the Executive Council, such dispute shall be referred to the next Quadrennial Delegates Conference whose decisions shall be final.
- ii) Should any dispute arise between two or more Branches of the Union and agreement satisfactory to all sides cannot be reached, the subject shall be referred to the Executive Council, which shall be empowered to appoint an Arbiter whose decisions shall be final and binding to all parties of the dispute. The Arbiter so appointed must not have or have had any official connection with the officers or Branches in dispute.

SECTION III - BRANCHES

Rule 19 Formation of Branches

- i) The Union shall be divided into Branches. The Executive Council shall determine the membership of each Branch.
- ii) Branches, with a minimum membership of twelve members may be established upon a basis of Department, Occupation or locality by the Executive Council. The Branch shall be known by the name authorised by the Executive Council. The Branch name shall not be changed without the Council's approval. Its Registered Office shall be at such place as the Executive Council may decide in consultation with the Branch Committee.
- iii) The Executive Council shall have power to make necessary arrangements if the membership of any Branch exceeds 500.
- iv) A member shall be attached to such Branch of the Union as the Executive Council may direct.
- v) The Executive Council shall be empowered to group together all Ordinary (General) members of this Union into one Branch to be called the General Branch which shall be administered by the Executive Council.
- vi) The Executive Council may at its discretion delegate such of its functions and powers it deems necessary to any department of NTUC or anybody that the National Trades Union Congress may from time to time establish for administering the General Branch, including the processing of the Ordinary (General) members applications for membership, collection of membership subscriptions, fees or other levies and administering their welfare benefits claims, and may at any time revoke the delegation of the same thereto.
- vii) Unless otherwise provided all the other provisions in this constitution which provide for the formation and function of a branch committee shall not apply to the General Branch.
- viii) The Executive Council may regulate and supervise the holdings of general meetings of members in branches at least once in four years to elect Branch committees and delegates to represent the branches and whenever required to consider collective agreements or industrial actions;
- ix) The Executive Council shall make regulations to refine and govern the functions and powers of branches in accordance with the provisions of this Rule, provided that the regulations so made hereunder shall not take effect until duly registered with the Registrar of Trade Unions.

Rule 20 Branch Business and Powers

- i) Each Branch Committee shall meet at least once a month (optional in the month of December) to transact its business. Special meetings may be summoned by the Branch Chairman, Branch Secretary, or Executive Council of the Union. The quorum for Branch Committee Meetings shall be more than half the total number of Committee members. The Branch Committee may at its absolute discretion invite any ordinary member to attend the Branch Committee Meeting as an Observer. The observer shall have no voting rights at the meeting and shall not form part of the quorum of the meeting. The number of observers shall be at the absolute discretion of the Executive Council. If a vacancy arises within the branch committee anytime after the Quadrennial General Meeting and before the next Quadrennial General Meeting, the committee may co-opt (with the approval of the Executive Council) any ordinary member of the branch to fill the vacancy until the next election of the Branch Committee.
- ii) Any member of the Branch Committee who absents himself without satisfactory excuse from three consecutive duly summoned meetings of the Branch Committee or any sub-committee hereof, shall be deemed to have vacated his seat. The proceedings of the Branch Committee shall not be invalidated by any vacancy in its numbers. The Executive Council shall have the final authority to decide whether to reinstate such members.
- iii)
 - (a) All branches shall hold a Branch Quadrennial General Meeting of members in the months of April , May or June (that is, within three months after the close of each fourth financial year of the union) immediately before the Quadrennial Delegates Conference. If special circumstances warrant the postponement of a Quadrennial General meeting, prior approval must be obtained from the Executive Council. The quorum for Branch General Meetings shall be 25% of the total fully paid-up membership of the Branch concerned or 30 members whichever is the lesser.
 - (b) In the event of there being insufficient members so as to constitute a quorum, the Branch General Meeting shall be postponed for 30 minutes after which the number of fully paid-up members present will form the quorum and only the business of the Agenda shall be dealt with.
- iv) Special Branch General Meetings may be convened at any time by the Branch Committee or on the written requisition of at least two-thirds of the total fully paid-up members of the Branch concerned. Such meeting shall transact only such business as that for which it is summoned.
- v) The Minutes of the Branch Committee meetings and General Meetings shall be forwarded to the General Secretary.

- vi) The Branch Committee shall have general control of the business of the Branch and shall carry out the policy as determined by the Quadrennial General Meeting. It shall in all things act for and in the name of the Branch.
- vii) The Branch Committee shall see that the Rules are properly observed.
- viii) The Branch Committee may appoint Branch Sub-committees as it may deem fit for the proper and efficient administration of the Branch.
- ix) The Branch Committee shall have powers to examine all records and documents kept in the Branch.
- x) The decision of the Branch Committee shall be binding on all members of the Branch.
- xi) A Branch may negotiate and reach agreement with its respective Department Heads only on matters pertaining to the members of the said Branch. Full details of such agreement should be forwarded to the General Secretary.
- xii) A Branch may, in consultation and with the -approval of the Executive Council, enter into joint activity with other Branches for specific purposes.

Rule 21 Branch General Meeting Procedure

- i) A preliminary notice of the Branch Inaugural or Quadrennial General Meeting of members asking for motions for discussion and nomination of candidates for election to the branch committee shall be circulated to all members of the branch not less than 14 days before the date fixed for the meeting. All motions and nominations with the consent of the candidates shall be submitted by their respective proposers and seconders to reach the Branch Secretary not later than 7 days before the date of the meeting. Provided that if the Executive Council decides that the election of a branch committee shall be by a department or section or group or locality , then candidates from one department or section or group or locality may stand for election in and be proposed and seconded by members from the respective department or section or group only.

- v) In the case of officers or employees of the Union who in the opinion of the Executive Council have the ability and experience, the Executive Council may at any time appoint the officers or employees of the union to be a non-elected member of the Executive Council. The members of the Executive Council may nominate such officers or employees of the Union for election or appointment to the appropriate post or posts and such nominees need not be delegates nor be members of the Union. An appointed member of the retiring Executive Council, other than the Executive Secretary, Deputy Executive Secretary and Assistant Executive Secretary, may attend but shall not speak or vote at a Delegates Conference at which the new Executive Council is to be elected or take office. The term of office of the person who is appointed to be a non-elected member of the Executive Council other than the Executive Secretary, Deputy Executive Secretary and Assistant Executive Secretary shall be the same as that of an elected member of the Executive Council.

- vi) The Executive Council may appoint an Executive Secretary, Deputy Executive Secretary and Assistant Executive Secretary from among the members of the Union or other person(s) provided always that a person who is not a founder or cadre member of the union shall not be appointed as the Executive Secretary, Deputy Executive Secretary and Assistant Executive Secretary of the union unless he is duly certified by the Secretary General of the National Trades Union Congress as being a fit and proper person for such appointment. The Executive Council shall include and empower such Executive Secretary, Deputy Executive Secretary and Assistant Executive Secretary if he is not an elected member of the Executive Council as one of the member of the Executive Council appointed under Rule 30 (ii) with the right to attend, speak and vote at Executive Council meetings and Delegates Conferences.

The Executive Secretary, Deputy Executive Secretary and Assistant Executive Secretary shall hold office until he is removed from office by the Executive Council with the prior approval of the Secretary General of the NTUC or he ceases to be certified by the Secretary General of the NTUC as being a fit and proper person for the appointment or he vacates office from any other cause. The Executive Secretary, Deputy Executive Secretary and Assistant Executive Secretary shall cease to be an appointed member of the Executive Council upon ceasing to be Executive Secretary, Deputy Executive Secretary and Assistant Executive Secretary of the Union.

- vii) In the event of death, incapacity, resignation or for any reason that a member of the Executive Council is no longer a delegate of the Branch, he shall be deemed to vacate his position in the Executive Council. The vacancy shall be filled in accordance to Rules 31 (iv) to 31 (vi).
- viii) With effect from the term of office elected in 2015, not more than three ordinary members shall be elected to the Executive Council from any branch of the Union provided that this restriction shall not apply so long as there is insufficient number of branches for this purpose.

Rule 31 Executive Council Meeting

- i) The regular meetings of the Executive Council shall be held monthly (optional in the month of December), with more than half the members of the Executive Council constituting a quorum. A special meeting may be called by the General Secretary or at the request of any ten members of the Executive Council. In case of extreme urgency the General Secretary may submit business to the Executive Council by circular letter or e-mail addressed to all members of the Council. The decision on such business shall be recorded in the minutes and confirmed at the next meeting. The Executive Council may at its absolute discretion invite any branch official to attend the Executive Council Meeting as an Observer. The observer shall have no voting rights at the meeting and shall not form part of the quorum of the meeting.

- ii) Every question at meeting of the Executive Council shall be decided by a majority of votes, and if the votes are equal the Chairman of the meeting shall have a casting vote.

Vacation of office due to absence from meetings

- iii) Any member of the Executive Council in his current term of office absents without satisfactory excuse from two consecutive duly summoned meetings of the Executive Council, or any sub-committee thereof, shall be deemed to have vacated his seat. The proceedings of the Executive Council shall not be invalidated by any vacancy in its number.
- iv) If a vacancy arises amongst the members of the Executive Council elected in the Quadrennial Delegates Conference, the Executive Council may co-opt the delegate with the next largest number of votes in the last Quadrennial Delegates Conference or delegates or branch officials whom in the opinion of the Executive Council has the experience and ability to fill the vacancy until the next election of the Executive Council.
- v) A co-opted member of the Executive Council shall not be deemed to assume any specific post held by the member he replaces unless the Executive Council so agrees.
- vi) If a co-opted member is given the seat and not the specific office of the vacating member, the Executive Council shall elect from among its members a successor to the specific office of the vacating member.

Rule 32 Functions and Powers of the Executive Council

- i) The Executive Council shall have general control of the business of the Union and shall carry out the national policy as determined by the Quadrennial Delegates Conference. It shall in all things act for and in the name of the Union, and all acts and orders under the powers delegated to the Executive Council shall have the like force and effect as the acts and orders of the Union at the Quadrennial Delegates Conference. The Executive Council shall have power to make regulations to meet the special circumstances of any case, subject to report to the next Quadrennial Delegates Conference.
- ii) It shall see that the Rules are properly observed, and shall decide upon any point on which the Rules are silent, such decision after having been notified to all Branches shall be binding on every member or body of members until revoked by the next Quadrennial Delegates Conference.

Any vacancy arising thereof shall be filled from among the members of the union by the Executive Council in its absolute discretion.
- ii) The General Auditors shall at the beginning of each month thoroughly examine all the accounts kept by the General Treasurer, check all receipts and payments and shall certify accordingly. They shall have access to all books, accounts, vouchers and other documents of the Union which they may consider necessary.
- iii) The General Auditors shall audit the accounts of any Branch when so required by the Executive Council. They shall be allowed such remuneration as the Executive Council shall decide.

Rule 52 External Auditors

- i) The Union shall at the first meeting of the Executive Council appoint a certified Public Accountant to be an External Auditor of the accounts of the Union provided that the same Certified Public Accountant is not so appointed for any continuous period of five years.
- ii) The External Auditor shall at the end of the Union's financial year thoroughly examine all the accounts of the Union, check all receipts and payments and shall certify accordingly. He shall have access to all books, accounts, vouchers and other documents of the Union which he may consider necessary.
- iii) The External Auditor shall prepare a report on the financial position of the Union and the manner in which the accounts have been kept having regard to the provisions of the Trade Unions Act or other laws concerning the accounts of the Union. This report shall be submitted to the Executive Council which shall publish it and send a copy to all Branches together with the Quadrennial Report. In addition, a copy of the Quadrennial Report and the Statement of Accounts duly certified by the External Auditor shall be conspicuously placed at the Head Office of the Union.
- iv) The External Auditor may be called by the Executive Council to conduct a thorough examination of the accounts at any time during the course of the year in addition to the annual check of accounts.
- v) The Executive Council shall be empowered to pay such expenses as may be incurred by employing the services of an External Auditor.

SECTION VIII - MUTUAL AID WELFARE SCHEMES

Rule 53.1 Objects

Pursuant to the objects of the Constitution, in particular Rules 3 (v) and (viii), the Mutual Aid Welfare Schemes (hereinafter referred to as the Schemes) are established herein for the purpose of affording some financial protection and reliefs to Ordinary members and dependants of Ordinary members, subject to Rule 7(vi), with the aim that these Schemes shall eventually:

- i) develop into a comprehensive and coordinated cover for all contingencies which, without fault on his part cause the member temporary or permanent loss of earnings;
- ii) extend so as to give protection to dependants of a member in the measure of their need for it;
- iii) assure such benefits to the member or his dependants that though moderate in amount are sufficient to offset the sudden loss of earnings; and
- iv) develop in such a manner that these Schemes may be made applicable to all members on the principle of solidarity between rich and poor, male and female and the robust and the delicate.

Rule 53.2 Establishment of Schemes

The Schemes above referred to shall consist of the HSEU Mutual Aid Scheme (hereinafter referred to as Scheme III). With the provision of the NTUC Gift Insurance Scheme (previously known as the SLF Gift Plus) for all members as a union benefits, Scheme I and II and the HSEU Ordinary (General) Members Benefits Scheme have ceased to operate. Scheme III is not applicable to NUH and NTUC Healthcare branch members and any new branches that collectively decide against participating in the Scheme III, subject to the approval of the Executive Council. The collective decision shall be taken at an Inaugural Branch General Meeting or any Branch General Meeting with prior approval from the Executive Council.

Rule 53.3 Establishment of Funds for Schemes

- i) There shall be established one Fund in respect of Scheme III;
- iii) In the event that HSEU is dissolved, the Fund in Scheme III shall be returned to Ordinary Members who are currently participating in Scheme III. This includes Scheme III funds invested and all returns from such investments,
- iv) The Fund shall be maintained in a separate account, in a bank or banks approved by the Executive Council;
- v) Where the reserves in the Fund exceeds the estimated operational needs of

Scheme III, the balance therefrom shall be invested on the advice of the Finance Committee of the Union

Rule 53.4 Committee of Management

- i) Each Executive Council shall at its first meeting elect a Committee of Management hereinafter referred to as (the Committee) to manage the operation of the said Scheme III;
- ii) The Committee shall consist of not less than five persons;
- iii) The functions, duties and powers of the Committee shall be as follows:-
 - (a) to meet not less than once quarterly to process and consider all claims under the Scheme III;
 - (b) to maintain proper records of its activities including Claims Registers, Nominee Registers, Investment Registers and such other records and registers necessary and proper in the conduct of its activities;
 - (c) to invest funds as advised by the Finance Committee of the Union;
 - (d) to prepare quarterly reports of its activities and investments for the Executive Council's consideration;
 - (e) to prepare and submit reports of claims and disputes which require the decision of the Executive Council;
 - (f) to prepare vouchers for payment by the General Treasurer;
 - (g) to take all necessary steps to inform members of the objects and operation of the Scheme III and to plan such action as is necessary to realise the aforesaid objects;
 - (h) to review periodically the operation of the Scheme III in the light of investment reserves and to make appropriate recommendations thereupon to the Executive Council for the revision and/or extension of benefits and /or introduction of new Schemes;
 - (i) to study and make recommendations thereupon to the Executive Council from the study of other feasible schemes in keeping with the objects as stated in Rule 53(1) above.

Rule 53.5

- i) Any disputes on the interpretation or application of these rules shall be referred by the Committee to the Executive Council whose decision shall be final.
- ii) The Executive Council may at its discretion, refer the dispute to the Public Trustee for advice.

Rule 53.6

Scheme III is open to all Ordinary members (at the point of entry into Scheme III) who are employed by any HSEU branch (at the point of claim) who opt to participate by signing on the necessary subscription form and paying the monthly MAS III subscription fee of $2 or the prevailing rate. This subscription fee will be reviewed as necessary to ensure the sustainability of Scheme III. Scheme III pays a daily cash allowance for each day of Hospitalisation up to the specified limits and for a maximum period specified in the Schedule of Benefits. Coverage will commence upon successful payment of Scheme III subscription fees. All payments are subject to the availability of funds. Annual audited Statement of Accounts for Scheme III will be published on the HSEU Website (www.hseu.org.sg).

Rule 53.7 DEFINITIONS

Wherever the following words are used in Scheme III they shall have the meanings given below:

Eligibility for Claim

The member should be employed by a HSEU branch at the point of claim. There should be no outstanding arrears on membership fees and Scheme III subscription fees due for payment to the union prior to and during the period of hospitalisation. Any member who resigns as a HSEU Ordinary Member shall cease to be eligible for Scheme III.

SECTION IX - TRADE DISPUTE

Rule 54 Procedure on Trade Disputes

- i) In the event of any trade dispute arising in a Branch, the members concerned shall make the same known to the Branch Secretary who shall immediately report to the Executive Council, but in no case shall a cessation of work be threatened or take place without the sanction of the Executive Council;

Rules Governing Strike Action

- ii) Should any section or body of members of the Union desire steps to be taken for industrial matters, the Branch Secretary shall report to the Executive Council, who shall determine what action shall be taken;

The following Rules shall regulate Strike Policy:-

- a) No strike shall take place unless authorised by two-thirds of the membership concerned voting by secret ballot.
- b) After the necessary majority has been obtained all further procedure shall be decided by the Executive Council.
- c) Instructions issued by the Executive Council respecting a stoppage of work must be obeyed by every member.
- d) It shall be the duty of the Organising Committee, so appointed for the purpose by the Executive Council, to make the necessary arrangements for carrying out a strike.
- e) Members failing or refusing to obey the instructions of the Executive Council shall be expelled from the Union.

Executive Council to decide on strike action

- iii) The right to call out any section of the Union shall be vested solely in the Executive Council, provided always that a two-thirds majority of the membership in the section concerned shall have been obtained;
- iv) In the event of a sectional strike being called by the Executive Council, no member of the Union shall take the place of a member on strike;
- v) If under exceptional circumstances, section or sections act contrary to the Rule 54(ii)(c) above, full information should at once be forwarded to the Executive Council, which shall immediately investigate the justification or otherwise of the action. The decision of the Executive Council shall be final and binding.

Rule 55 Victimisation

Any member victimised by dismissal or otherwise solely or mainly on account of his membership of or work for the Union, or suspended from work through a strike of other employees, may claim the assistance of the Union. If the Executive Council is satisfied as to the facts of the case, it shall take action on the member's behalf including the payment of an allowance. The amount of allowance and the period for which the allowance is to be paid is to be decided by the Executive Council.

SECTION X - STANDING ORDERS OF CONFERENCE

Rule 56 General Provisions

The Executive Council may appoint a committee for the purposes of supervising the organization, rules and drafting the standing orders for any delegates conference. The Executive Council shall have full powers to adopt Standing Orders which shall have the same force as this Constitution on all members. Such Standing Orders shall be distributed to all Branches not less than 14 days before the Quadrennial Delegates Conference.

SECTION XI - PROCEDURE FOR CONDUCTING A SECRET BALLOT

Rule 57 Procedure for conducting a Secret Ballot at a meeting

- i) The Executive Council or the Branch Committee shall fix the date, the time and the place for voting and the General Secretary or the Branch Secretary shall take steps to secure that every member/delegate who is entitled to vote is informed, as far as practicable, of the date, time and place of the ballot. It shall be the responsibility of the Executive Council or the Branch Committee to see that all those who are entitled to vote are given a reasonable opportunity to record their votes freely that the result of voting are correctly ascertained and declared and that the secrecy of the ballot is properly secured.
- ii) The Executive Council or the Branch Committee shall cause the required number of ballot papers to be prepared in the form similar to specimen A1 or A2 or B1. Nothing shall be marked or indicated on any ballot paper by any person which can in any way identify the member voting;
 - a) In the case of Branches which call for nominations a few days before the Quadrennial General Meeting, or Special Meeting ballot papers as in Specimen A1 shall be used. Nominations at the meeting shall not be allowed.
 - b) In the case of Branches which do not adopt the practice of inviting nominations before the Meeting, nominations shall be made at the meeting and the designations of posts e.g. Chairman or Committee Member, and the names of the persons nominated for such posts shall be written on a blackboard and numbered in the order that nominations are made. Ballot papers as in Specimen A2 shall be distributed by the Tellers for each post.
- iii) The Executive Council or the Branch Committee shall provide if practicable, a separate room, or if that is not practicable, a separate portion of a room for the taking of the ballot together with writing materials and a ballot box which shall be kept sealed from the commencement of the ballot until the time when votes are counted.;
- iv) The conduct and counting of any secret ballot shall be in the charge of at least three Scrutineers (one of whom shall be appointed the Chief Scrutineer), at least two of whom shall be present throughout. Such Scrutineers who shall not be members of the Executive Council in the case of elections to the Executive Council or the Branch Committee, in the case of election to Branch Committee shall be appointed by the Executive Council or at the Quadrennial or Special Branch General Meeting;
- v) No person shall be present in the room or portion of a room as the case may be during the vote except the Scrutineers and the members who are actually voting;

- vi) Each voter on presenting himself for the purpose of voting shall forthwith produce to one of the Scrutineers if required, satisfactory evidence of his membership of his name or number which shall be forthwith checked off by such Scrutineers in the membership list compiled for the purpose and he shall be handed a ballot paper. The Scrutineers shall ensure that only those members who are entitled to vote are given the opportunity to do so and that each member votes once only on a particular issue;
- vii) The voter who has been issued with a ballot paper shall then proceed to record his vote by placing a cross or a number of crosses, as the case may be, and no other mark on the ballot paper. Then, folding the ballot paper at least in half, he shall drop it in the ballot-box provided for that purpose and immediately quit the place of voting;
- viii) At the conclusion of voting, all ballot papers which have not been used for voting shall be destroyed by the Scrutineers. The Scrutineers shall then open the ballot-box and count the votes. The Scrutineers or a majority of them shall decide whether any ballot paper shall be rejected as being invalid and shall forthwith separate any paper so rejected and mark it "rejected";
- ix) After all the votes have been counted, the Scrutineers shall prepare a statement, as in Specimen (C) and (D) in quadruplicate, of the result of the ballot and handing all copies duly signed either to the Branch Secretary or to the General Secretary as the case may be. The statement shall be countersigned by the Branch Chairman and the Branch Secretary or the President and the General Secretary as the case may be, and the Scrutineers shall then announce the result of the ballot to the members present. If the Secret ballot was taken at a Branch, the Branch Secretary shall keep one copy in his files and forward three copies to the General Secretary within four days of the ballot;
- x) One signed copy of the Scrutineers Statement shall be sent to the Registrar of Trade Unions by the General Secretary within seven days after the ballot. He shall retain the other copy for a least six months which may be inspected by any member who desires to do so;
- xi) Immediately after the result of the ballot has been certified as aforesaid, the ballot papers which have been counted, including the rejected ones and any other documents used in connection with the ballot shall be sealed up in a large envelope and kept in safe custody for a period of six months for inspection by the Registrar of Trade Unions.
